GOLDEN FRUIT is a heartfelt musical about, a little village, on the east side of the great mountain, lies a land once known as the Land of Golden Fruit, for here the world’s finest fruit was produced. It was also the dwelling place of a people rooted in peace, love and strong family traditions. As time would pass, however, the people would lose their way. Now they are breaking ground for a new world class resort. As farmers continue to sell their land, corruption and greed become the invisible drivers piloting this new way of life - a way that has caused great division, a way that has nurtured deceit. That is until a traveler appears with the mastery to provoke and reestablished truth and reality through the power of his music. GOLDEN FRUIT, starring T. C. Carson as the Pied Piper, and directed and choreographed by Patdro Harris, is the story of how one man changes the hearts and minds of a community that forgot their most valuable commodity, their children.
